AWARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa, by Order dated 09-08-2011, bearing No. 28/15/2011- LAB, referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa. The Hon'ble Presiding Officer, Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Panaji, Goa, thereafter assigned the present reference to this Labour Court-II for its adjudication vide her order dated 12-08-2011.

1. "Whether the action of the management of M/s. Selvel Publicity and Consultants Private Limited, Patto Plaza, Panaji-Goa, in transferring Shri Nitendra Kamat, Sales Executive, from Goa to Cochin vide its order dated 05-03-2005, and thereafter terminating his services with effect from 17-03-2005, for not resuming the duties at the place of posting, is legal and justified?

2. If not, what relief the Workman is entitled to?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. IT/21/2011 and registered A/D notice was issued to the Parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the parties appeared. The Workman/Party-I (for short 'Workman'), filed his statement of claim on 08-09-2011. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Workman are that he was appointed as a 'Sales Executive' by the Employer/Party II (for short, 'Employer') w.e.f.

21-02-2000 on probation. He stated that he was confirmed in service by the Employer w.e.f. 01-11-2000. He stated that his work is of clerical nature such as typing letters to the customers, collecting payments and after preparing the relevant papers remits the payment in the bank, obtaining the orders, preparing the contracts, preparing the covering letters to the bills, preparing and issuing the receipts, preparing the outstanding statements, sending the letters for delay in payments etc. He stated that the letters were prepared by him and after obtaining the signature of the Branch Manager, the same were delivered to the concerned parties. He submitted that he was not having any powers of managerial and supervisory in nature nor he was supervising the work of any of the employees. He submitted that he was working under the supervision and orders of the Branch Manager. He stated that his salary has been increased by the Employer on regular intervals keeping in mind his performance as well as dedication towards them. He stated that since his joining till June, 2004, there was no complaint against him.

3. He stated that in the month of July, 2004, in order to appoint a new person of his choice, the Branch Manager started making false and fabricated cases against him. He stated that in the month of July, 2004, he received a telephone call from Mr. Nitin A. Kshirsagar, the General Manager of the Employer regarding the complaints made by the Branch Manager. He stated that he submitted a detailed reply to the said General Manager, vide his letter dated 13-07-2004. He stated that since the Branch Manager was having a grudge against him, he started harassing him only to victimize him in order to appoint a new person in his place.

4. He stated that on 05-03-2005, Mr. Nitin A. Kshirsagar, the General Manager of the Employer, informed him that his services has been transferred to its Cochin office due to exigencies of work w.e.f. 14-05-2005 and that he should report to Cochin. He stated that he informed the Employer that he requested the Employer to cancel his transfer order and allow him to work in Goa only on account of the sickness of his parents, vide his letter dated 09-03-2005. He stated that the Employer rejected the request made by him vide his letter dated 09-03-2005 by their letter dated 14-03-2005. He stated that he has applied for one month privilege leave to his credit vide his application dated 12-03-2005 considering the health of his parents. He stated that however, the said leave application has been rejected by the Employer and he was told to resume the duties. He stated that the Employer terminated his services on 17-03-2005 by their letter dated 17-03-2005.

4. Being aggrieved by the termination letter, the Workman raised a dispute before the Labour Commissioner, Panaji, Goa, vide his letter dated 24-07-2008, which ended in failure. The Workman contended that the transfer order issued to him is malafide, illegal and unjustified as the transfer was merely a device to get rid of him and the Employer was interested in appointing new employees in his place of work. He submitted that the transfer order is a colourable exercise of power by the Employer to do away with him. He submitted that the appointment letter issued to him suggests that his appointment was to perform the duties at Goa office of the Employer and as such transferring of his services to far off places like Cochin amounts to change in service conditions and as such illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law. He submitted that the appointing authority was not the authority who had issued transfer order to him and therefore the said transfer is bad-in-law. He submitted that the transfer order was issued to him by the General Manager, whereas the appointing authority was the Managing Director of the Employer. He submitted that neither charge-sheet was issued to him nor any enquiry was conducted before terminating his services and as such the termination of his services is in violation of principles of natural justice. He submitted that after termination of his services, new employees were employed in the Goa branch. The Workman therefore, prayed that the action of the Employer in transferring his services be declared as illegal, unjustified and malafide. The Workman further prayed that the action of the Employer in terminating his services be declared as illegal, unjustified and malafide and direct the Employer to reinstate him with full back wages and continuity in service.

5. The Employer resisted the claim of the Workman by filing its written statement on 22-12-2011 at Exb. 6. The Employer, as and by way of its preliminary objections, submitted that the dispute raised by the Workman is not maintainable and therefore liable to be dismissed and that the Workman has abandoned its services and therefore, the Workman is not entitled to any relief.

6. The Employer stated that it has total 13 branches all over India. The Employer stated that in terms of services conditions acceptable to both the parties, it has right to transfer its employees including the Workman from one branch to another in India on account of exigencies. The Employer submitted that the allegation of the Workman that his transfer to Cochin was malafide is false. The Employer stated that on account of exigencies, the services of the Workman was required in Cochin and therefore he was transferred to Cochin. The Employer stated that transfer is a conditions of service and the same has been incorporated in the terms of service accepted by them at the time of his appointment and therefore the contention that the transfer of the Workman is not accepted. The Employer admitted that the Workman was appointed by them as a Sales Executive on probation w.e.f. 21-02-2000. The Employer admitted that the initial appointment of the Workman was in Goa. The Employer stated that the services of the Workman was transferable to any of its branch. The Employer stated that the Workman has signed an undertaking accepting their right to transfer him to any of its branch in India. The Employer stated that the transfer order of the Workman was rightly issued by a competent person and that there was no malafide intention to transfer the Workman. The Employer stated that the Workman wrote a letter to them requesting to cancel his transfer to Cochin, but the same was not supported by any document in proof of sickness of his father. The Employer stated that the said letter was made with intention to avoid his transfer and cause inconvenience to them and therefore, the request was rejected. The Employer stated that on account of exigencies, the services of the Workman was urgently required at Cochin and therefore they have directed the Workman to join urgently. The Employer stated that the Workman has abandoned his service after rejecting his application on the alleged ground of sickness of his father. The Employer stated that the services of the Workman was terminated after giving him sufficient opportunities to join at his transferred place and there is no violation of principles of natural justice. The Employer denied the overall case as pleaded by the Workman and prayed for dismissal of the present claim of the Workman.

7. Thereafter, the Workman filed his re-joinder on 16-01-2012 at Exb. 7. The Workman, by way of his Re-joinder denied each and every statement, averments and submissions made by the Employer vide their Written Statement filed in the present proceedings and reiterates and confirms the statements, averments and submissions made by him in his statement of claim.

8. Based on the pleadings filed by the parties hereinabove, the Hon'ble Presiding Officer, Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court framed the following issues on 17-02-2012 at Exb. 08.

1. Whether Party I proves that his work was of clerical nature and that he had no managerial or supervising powers?
2. Whether Party I proves that transferring him to Cochin amounts to change in service conditions and thus is illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law?
3. Whether the Party I proves that transfer order by an incompetent authority is violative of law, arbitrary and unjustified?
4. To what relief the Party I is entitled to?

9. Thereafter, the matter was fixed for the evidence of the Workman. The Workman has however, sought several adjournments to file his affidavit in evidence. On 23-11-2017, Ld. Adv. Shri S. Gaonkar remained present for the Workman and filed an application for withdrawal of his appearance on behalf of the Workman. The said application of Ld. Adv. Shri S. Gaonkar is allowed and accordingly, Ld. Rep. Shri P. Gaonkar stands discharged. Since neither the Workman remained present nor could file his affidavit in evidence even after granting him several opportunities, the evidence of the Workman is ordered to be closed. Consequently, there is absolutely no evidence on record either oral or documentary of the Workman. Ld. Adv. Shri. K. Polle holding for Adv. Shri. Amonkar submitted that as the Workman has not lead any evidence, the Employer also do not wish to lead any evidence.

10. In the case of V.N.S. Engineering Services v/s Industrial Tribunal of Goa, Daman and Diu and Anr., reported in 1987 II LLN 968 of Hon'ble High Court of Bombay has held that "there is nothing in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 that indicates a departure from the general rule that he who approaches a court for relief should prove his case i.e. the obligation to lead evidence to establish an allegation, the test being that he who does not lead evidence, must fail. The Hon'ble High Court of Bombay further held that the provisions of Rule-10-B of the I. D. (Central Rules), 1957 which requires the party raising a dispute to file a statement of demands relating only to the issue in the order of reference for adjudication within 15 days from the receipt of the order of reference and forward copies to the opposite party involved, clearly indicates that the party who raises the industrial disputes is bound to prove the contention raised him and an Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court would be erring in placing the burden of proof on the other party to the dispute".

11. In the case of V. K. Raj Industries v/s Labour Court (I) and Ors. reported in the year 1981 (29) FLR, 194 of Allahabad High Court has held that the proceedings before the Industrial Tribunal are judicial in nature, even though the Indian Evidence Act, is not applicable to the proceeding before the Industrial Court, but the principle underlying the said Act are applicable. The High Court has held that "it is well settled that if a party challenges the validity of an order and if no evidence is produced, the party invoking the jurisdiction must fail. The High Court has also held that if the workman fails to appear or to file written statement or produce evidence, the dispute referred by the Government cannot be answered in favour of the workman and he will not be entitled any relief".

12. The principle laid down by the Hon'ble High Court in its respective case are still holds good. Applying the law laid down by the Hon'ble High Court in the instance case, the order of reference has been issued by the Government of Goa at the instance of the workman, who has raised the present dispute pertaining to the legality and justifiability of the action of the Employer in transferring him from Goa to Cochin vide its order dated 05-03-2005 and thereafter terminating his services w.e.f. 17-03-2005 for not resuming the duties at the place of posting. The workman also appeared before this court and filed his pleadings, setting up the grounds of challenge to his alleged transfer from Goa to Cochin and thereafter terminating his services w.e.f. 17-03-2005 for not resuming the duties at the place of posting. The Employer resisted the claim of the Workman by contending that the transfer of the workman from Goa to Cochin was on account of exigencies and as per its service conditions and that the termination was on account of abandonment of his service. The court also framed certain issues based on the pleadings filed by the respective parties. It was therefore incumbent upon the workman to prove his case by leading material evidence either oral or documentary. However, the roznama proceedings maintained by this court indicates that the Workman failed to remain present even after seeking several opportunities. Consequently, the workman failed to prove any of the issues burdened upon him. In the circumstances, in the absence of any evidence on record, it is held that the workman failed to prove that his transfer from Goa to Cochin vide order dated 05-03-2005 is malafide, illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law. The Workman also failed to prove that the action of the Employer in terminating his services w.e.f. 17-03-2005 is illegal and unjustified. The workman is therefore not entitled to any relief. The Employer also did not lead evidence in rebuttal. The issue Nos. 1 to 3 are therefore answered in the negative.

In view of the above, I proceed to pass the following order:

ORDER

1. In the absence of any evidence on record, it is held that the action of the management of M/s. Selvel Publicity and Consultants Private Limited, Patto Plaza, Panaji-Goa, in transferring Shri Nitendra Kamat, Sales Executive, from Goa to Cochin vide its order dated 05-03-2005, and thereafter terminating his services with effect from 17-03-2005, for not resuming the duties at the place of posting, is legal and justified.
2. The workman Shri Nitendra Kamat, Sales Executive, is not entitled to any relief.
3. No order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.
